

1. Voluntary cleaning activity in the Community- December 16, 2016

“Voluntary cleaning activity” is being organised by NICED, Kolkata, in the community under Kolkata Municipal Corporation, Ward-66 on 16th December 2016.

The National Institute of Cholera and Enteric Diseases organized a “voluntary cleaning activity” in the community under Kolkata Municipal Corporation, Ward-66 on 16th December 2016. The local residents from the community being informed about the activity by the Ward-Councilor and actively participated in it; ward-Council members also joined hands. All the participants ensured to keep their locality clean leading to good health for their children and family members.

2. Tree plantation activity in the Community- December 19, 2016

NICED organised tree plantation activity on 19th December 2016, in collaboration with local residents in ward no. 66 of Kolkata Municipal Corporation. The Director Dr. Shanta Dutta and scientists of NICED planting tree along with Ward Councillor Mr. Fiaz Ahmed.

A tree plantation activity was undertaken by the National Institute of Cholera and Enteric Diseases on 19th December 2016, in collaboration with local residents in ward no. 66 of Kolkata Municipal Corporation. The Director of the institution Dr. Shanta Dutta along with the Ward Councillor Mr. Fiaz Ahmed and Scientists of the Institution, Dr. Ranjan K Nandy, Dr. Suman Kanungo and Dr. Falguni Debnath had planted trees. Brief interaction took place between the Director of the NICED with local community members about importance of tree plantation as well as maintenance of clean environment. The program was marked by the enthusiastic participation of the Ward Councilor and local residents, who along with NICED team members vouched to make the locality as a model ward in Kolkata.

3. Organizing public lecture/interactive panel discussion regarding Swachh Bharat campaign- December 22, 2016

NICED organised public lecture/interactive panel discussion regarding Swachh Bharat campaign at Tiljala V.I.P Sporting Club on 22nd December 2016. The trainees of the course “Sanitary Inspector- Health Management (SI-HM)” of the National Institute for Health Training joined the lecture as participants.

The Principal of the Indian Institute for Health Training, Kolkata, Mr. Ajit Kumar Sur, had informed the students and faculty members about the upcoming public lecture on communicable diseases and environmental pollution. The event was subsequently held at Tiljala V.I.P Sporting Club, 217 Tiljala Road, Kolkata 700046 on 22nd December 2016. Brochures and banners were used to disseminate information on various topics. The trainees of the course titled “Sanitary Inspector- Health Management (SI-HM)” at the National Institute for Health Training have joined the lecture as participants. The session was conducted by the Hygiene Committee members of NICED. The following topics were discussed

- Communicable Diseases –Special emphasis on Diarrhoea and vector borne diseases like Dengue
- Environmental Pollution – Awareness and prevention
- Nutrition for Children below 5 years and pregnant woman
- Personal Hygiene and Hand Washing procedures
- Environment Cleanliness

4. Organizing seminar on hygiene / cleanliness- December 23, 2016

NICED organised a seminar on hygiene/ cleanliness among 19 students of grades 1-4 of Milan Sangha Government Sponsored Free Primary School, Beliaghata on 23rd December 2016. The attending students were encouraged to act as peer educators.

On 23rd December 2016, members of the health and hygiene team of NICED reached out to a school named Milan Sangha Government Sponsored Free Primary School, located at Beliaghata, Kolkata-700085. Dissemination of information covering the topics of diarrhea and nutrition and their relation with health and hygiene was conducted among 19 students (15 girls, 4 boys) of grades 1-4. In addition, the attending students were encouraged to act as peer educators. A participatory demonstration session was subsequently conducted by the students on six steps of hand washing with actual usage of soap and water.

5. Swachh Bharat Lecture and Felicitation- December 26, 2016

Swachh Bharat Campaign was observed at NICED, Kolkata on 26 December 2016 at the Dr. B. C. Deb Auditorium. Dr. Uchchal Bhadra, Principal, Infectious Disease & Beliaghata General Hospital, Kolkata was the invited speaker at this event.

Dr. Uchchal Bhadra, Principal, Infectious Disease & Beliaghata General Hospital, Kolkata, invited speaker at Swachh Bharat Campaign observed at NICED, Kolkata on 26 December 2016, delivering his speech on evolution of concept of hygiene and sanitation along the development of human civilization.

Audience seated at Dr. B. C. Deb Auditorium of NICED listening to the Swachh Bharat Lecture of invited speaker Dr. Uchchal Bhadra, Principal, Infectious Disease & Beliaghata General Hospital, Kolkata.

Mr. Kanu Dey, Technician-B, being felicitated by the Director, Dr. Shanta Dutta on 26th December 2016 for his initiative to facilitate Swachh Bharat activities to keep the premises of NICED clean.

Mr. Kanu Dey, Technician-B, NICED was felicitated on 26th December 2016 for his initiative to facilitate Swachh Bharat activities to keep the premises of NICED clean. Lecture sessions were also organized followed by opportunities for questions and clarifications on this day for the staff of NICED. Dr. Uchchal Bhadra, Principal, Infectious Disease & Beliaghata General Hospital, Kolkata was the invited speaker at this event who deliberated upon evolution of concept hygiene and sanitation along the development of human civilization.